Designed with your business in mind

Trade Secure:

Designed with your business in mind

For most businesses, selling on credit is a necessity and a fact of business life. Many Canadian businesses have for many years used Credit Insurance as a tool to manage their credit risk and cash flow. However, for some businesses this has not always been practical due to the complexity and cost involved. This is no longer the case.

Euler Hermes Canada has listened to the needs of smaller businesses and designed a policy with them in mind. With Trade Secure, businesses of any size can now benefit from the protection offered by Credit Insurance at a reasonable cost and with the minimum of administration.

With Trade Secure you have the security of knowing that you will get paid if any of your covered accounts become insolvent, are slow to pay or are otherwise unable to pay.
